

What is Guardianship

A guardianship is a court-appointed role given to a person who will manage the personal choices for an individual thought to be unable to manage on their own.

Full Guardianship

A Personal Guardian will be assigned by a judge if you are unable to manage any of your personal affairs without assistance.

Limited Guardianship

A Limited Guardianship is assigned by a judge when you are able to manage some of your personal affairs, but not all.

A guardian could make the following FINANCIAL decisions:

- Determine your monthly budget
- Decide where your savings go
- Choose where you can live
- Select what you buy

A guardian could make the following PERSONAL decisions to protect your health, safety and welfare:

- Choose who you talk to
- Select where you go
- Determine how you spend your free time
- Select where you work
- Decide if you can date
